Figure.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 27.— Washington made a weak showing against the Athletics today, in the first game of the series and weak showing game of the series, and was easily shut out by Connie Mack's rejuvenated pennant aspirants, by 6 to 0.

One of the smallest crowds that has attended Saturday games at Columbia Park in a long while witnessed the contest, there being only 7,775 spectators in the stands.

Today's game was all one way, and the home team had things so easy that there was little cause for the crowd to enthuse at any stage. In addition to Washington being completely at the mercy of Jimmy Dygert's spitball pitching, the visitors put up a listless, careless fielding game and simply handed the game over to the Athletics.

Hughes Too Wild for Street.

Big Tom Hughes was mainly at fault He started in by making a three-base wild throw, and a wild pitch in the first inning, and repeated the trick in the fifth inning. Street, the Washing-ton catcher, appeared unable to gauge the wild hurling of Hughes. Keeley took Hughes' place in the sixth inning, and only one more run was added by the Athletics.

Dygert has not shown better forn Dygert has not shown better form on the slab this season. In the first eight innings only one hit was registered off him, Street making a clean single to right field after two were out in the second inning. In the ninth inning, with two out, Clymer hit a grounder to Eddle Collins and just managed to beat the throw to mist by fast sprinting.

Ganley Alone Reaches Second.

Only one of the visiting players reached second base. In the fourth inning, after two men were out, Gan ley drew a base of balls and stole sec ond, but Milan was an easy out,

Street started the fifth with a pass, but was nipped asleep off first base. Dygert issued another pass to Altizer in the fifth, but he was forced at sec-ond, and the infield hit by Clymer in the ninth was wasted.

the ninth was wasted.

Hartzel opened with a clean single of Hughes and Nichols beat out a bunt. Hughes fielded the ball, and when he threw to the fence Hartzel scored and Nichols reached third. A wild pitch followed, sending Nichols across the rubber. Harry Davis then tore off a two-bagger to deep center and advanced on Murphy's sacrifice, but Jimmy Collins and Oldring were easy outs.

A fumble by Altizer and a passed ball gave the Athletics a chance to score in the second, but Powers was caught at the plate when he tried to steal home, Nichols falling to connect with the bail. This looked like a foolish play with two out, as Hartzel had been passed to first and stole second and a hit by Nichols would have scored two runs.

Three Runs With Two Out.

Hughes settled down for a couple innings and pitched in something l his regular form. In the fifth he fann Powers and Dygerf in succession. Th Hartzel reached first on a fumble McBr:de and a wild pitch advanced h to third. Nichols walked, Freem muffed Hughes' high throw to cat Nichols napping and Hartzel score Nichols started for second and co the ball into left field, no one cover second base. Davis scored Nichols wi a single. Hughes threw wild to first catch Davis napping, the ball rolli-through the screen into the bleache and Davis made the circuit. Murp ended the farce with a fly to Freeman ended the farce with a fly to Freeman.

Keeley took the mound in the sixth and the youngster showed splendid form. The Athletics could do nothing with him for two innings, going out in order. With one out in the eighth, Davis drew four balls. Street's perfect throw nailed Davis stealing, but after tagging the runner, McBride feli down and dropped the throw. Murphy got two bases on his hit to center, but Lake. 4; by Clotte, 6. balls—Off Cicotte, 4; off Newton only reached third on the hit. He scored a moment later on Jimmy Collins' long drive to Milan.

THE WORLD TO COME.

A distinguished German scholar had devoted his faculties to what claimed to be the demonstration of atheism came consistently to his death atheism came consistently to his death bed. He was prepared, he said, to prove out of the expiring sparks of his own life that it must become a quenched and blackened fiame. He observed the processes of dissolution calmly, with the long habit of the scientific method. Friends, themselves unbelieving and unhoping, stood about him, waiting to catch the last flicker of defiance from a soul to its God. For some hours he had lain unexpectedly silent and with eyes closed. He had very dark, large eyes, piercing and powerful. Suddenly he opened them, and from their caverns shot out a fire before which the coldest scoffer in the room shrank back. WILMINGTON, Del., June 27.—One of the most successful golf tournaments ever held over the course of the Wilmington Country Club was

R. Wier, of the home club, had the satisfaction of capturing the Wilmington Cup. In the semi-final round he had a very stiff match with W. S. Harban, of Washington, and only just managed to win 1 up at the eighteenth hole. In the final round he had as his opponent E. B. Eynon, whom he defeated fairly easily, 4 up and 2 to play.

For the vice president's cup two Philadelphians qualified for the semi-final round, but as they had to play each other, it was possible for only one of them to appear in the final. Dr. S. Bollon, of the Frankfort Country Club, defeated G. W. Lindsay, of Delaware Brookland cumbed in the final round, to T. P. Draper, 2 up and 1 to play. For the Brandywine cup not a single Philadelphian qualified, and T. M. Brown firally won, by defeating E. S. Jamelson, 2 up and 1 to play. The form showed by C. M. Sheward against G. P. Bartholemew, in the semi-final for the added cup, made him a hot favorite in the final round, with C. S. McIntire. The match was a very close one how. team to victory in the contest at New making this meet an annual event, and every year a new fecture will be added. The meet is to be held under the auspices of the A. A. U. and the rules of the union will be strictly adhered to. The scheduled events are relay races, running, broad, and high jumps, 100-yard dash, sixteen-pound shot-put, pole vault, horizontal and parallel bars, vaulting horse, and hop-step-and-jump. The track events, consisting only of 100-dash and relay races, are not many, but it is expected that the entries will be dided.

The Blues, but the third inning saw his Waterloo. Opportune hitting, combined with errors by Yale fielders, gave the Crimsons six runs. Harvard was also forced to use two pitchers in the contest. With a six-run lead against them the Yale men began hitting Hartford freely, but before any serious damage could be done Hicks was substituted, and he held the New Havenites safe.

The field events should be close, especially the pole vault, as Sterrett and Thrall, of the Gurley Athletic Club will enter, and Ward, of the Central Y. M. A., Baltimore, who forced his ellow-contestants in the South Stlantic games rather hard, will also be there. The broad and high jump and the shotout should bring a very large field, as there is much good splendid material in this section. In the new feature, the hop-step-and jump, many are expected to enter although it is seldom seen. It is an event scheduled for the London Olympic, as well as other big meets this year. The Columbia Turn Verein will have seven men entered in the hop-step-and-jump, the apparatus events, and scattered in the other events. It has thus far never gone into any field and track meets, but this first venture will give it a chance to judge and will no doubt lead to its being entered in every meet scheduled hereabouts. The Turners might possibly not be the winners of all events, but they will make it quite interesting for the contestants, and good records are expected.

The regular gold, silver, and bronze meeds will be awarded to the first, second, and third men of each event, and medals will be given to each individual man on the winning relay team as well as a silver cup to the team.

Entries will close July 12 at noon, and those desiring further particulars or information may write to F. E. Mann, Secretary Columbia Turn Verein, Seventh and L streets northwest. ic, as well as other big meets this year.

HAPSBURG FAMILY TOMB.

HAPSBURG FAMILY TOMB.

When Emperor William of Germany was in Vienna recently he visited the Capuchin Church to lay a wreath on the tomb of the Empress Elizabeth. This church is not only the Hapsburg family sepulcher, but is said to be also probably to most striking burial place in the whole world. Over and above the more than 100 coffins, those of emperors and empresses draped in black veivet and gold, while the lesser Hapsburg rest under red and silver trappings, there is an array of crystal vases, each containing the heart of a Hapsburg. Ever since the thirteenth century it has been the custom of he royal house for its dead to have the heart removed and separately enshrined in a little crystal casket, while anothr custom requires the Hapsburgs to lie actually in wood, which, however, may have an outer metal covering.—Kansas City Star.

FAIR PLAY VICTOR, EQUALING RECORD

Belmont Colt Three-Quarters of a Length Ahead of Hessian.

WINNER GIVES ALL WEIGHT BUT ONE

Sir Martin, Carrying Madden Colors, Captures Great Trial Stakes. His Stablemate Second.

NEW YORK, June 27 .- Fair Play, the Hastings-Fairy Gold colt, belonging to August Belmont, captured the $25,000 Coney Island Jockey Club Stakes at Sheepshead Bay today in a manner denoting that he is a genuine thorough-

Three-quarters of a length behind the winner was Hessian, the big Watercress colt owned by Jack Joyner, and King James, the representative of John E. Madden, was third, two lengths away.

Fair Play covered the mile and shalf in 2 311-5, thereby equaling the track record made by Stalwart in 1991. There was no fluke about the victory

Fair Play had to give ten pounds away to all his rivals, with the exception of Angelus, which carried even weight with the Belmont racer.

ishes seen at the meeting, Sir Martin, carrying the cherry colors of John E. Madden, captured first honors in the $25,000 Great Trial Stakes. A length and a half away from Sir Martin was Fay-ette, his stablemate, and the highly touted Keene star Helmet was a head behind Fayette, and the same distance in front of Bobbin, the Whitney candi-

Bumping Contest.

The race was a bumping contest from start to finish. The one most affected was Fayette, which was almost knocked to his knees coming around the bend. Helmet was the offender. As they swung nto the short stretch, Helmet swerved toward the outer rail and carried Fayette, Bobbin, and Sir Martin with him. When they straightened out Helmet still kept boring against Fayette, and it ooked as if the interference would cheat the wizard out of the valuable purse. When Lee, who rode Sir Martin, saw that the race was in jeopardy, he shook up his mount, and, shaking his whip at him, he flew by the leaders and saved the day.

This is the fourth conse This is the fourth consecutive stake, in which the Madden pair has run one-two, and in these events they have earned $80,000 for their popular owner. Before the field started for the post, Paul J. Rainey made an offer of $40,000 for Fayette, but Madden declined. It is more than probable that negotiations will be again entered upon, but as Madden has given H. P. Whitney a price of $50,000 on the colt, he said that he would not think of letting him go for a lower. not think of letting him go for a lower sum.
